LUNDBERG BUILDERS WINS WHAT'S UP? MAGAZINE'S BEST OF EASTERN SHORE 2014 READER'S POLL FOR 'HOME DESIGN/BUILDER & REMODELING/CUSTOM BUILDING SERVICES' FOR THE 5TH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

ANNAPOLIS, Md. June 1, 2015 – Lundberg Builders, Inc., a leading full service design and build firm serving Anne Arundel County and the Eastern Shore of Maryland has won What's Up? Magazine's Best of Eastern Shore 2015 Reader's Poll for 'Home Design/Builder & Remodeling/Custom Building Services'. This is the company's fifth consecutive year as the winner for this category.

Office manager Jennifer Lundberg said the company is honored to have won the communities support again this year. "We are always pleased when we win awards. But having our work and everything we stand for validated by our community members means the world. It backs up everything our family has worked towards building for almost 40 years. Our relationships with our clients and community members is as important to us as the homes we build."

Lundberg Builders projects have been featured in numerous leading home building and design magazines including, Home and Design, Annapolis Home, Home, Builder/Architect, as well as The Washington Post. They have also recently won Best of Houzz in Design and The Capital Readers Choice.
